COLL 200 Section 10 -- Teaching Practicum
Dale Sawyer, Professor of Earth Science & Master at Sid Richardson College
1 credit

This course is open only to an instructor of a Student Taught Course in the current semester. Completion of this course is required for the instructor to receive 1 credit for teaching the course. The course is graded Pass or Fail.

The course consists of several meetings with the Sid instructors to discuss the experiences they are having in their classes. We work on ways to assist one another.
